June 22nd-30th, 2019

Day one Saturday – June 22, 2019 Arrive in Denver, One night—Embassy Suites

Welcome to Denver, Colorado, the "Mile High City." Meet your fellow travelers at 6:00 p.m. for a get-acquainted dinner hosted by your tour guide Mark Warther. Mark combines his knowledge of trains with the rich history of Colorado, to create a one of a kind tour which also features great hotels and fine Colorado cuisine.

Welcome Dinner Reception

Day two Sunday – June 23, 2019 Palisade, Co. Two night—Wine Country Inn.

This morning we enjoy our first train ride on the Georgetown Loop Railroad. This railroad connected the thriving mining towns of Georgetown and Silver Plume. We will ride horseshoe curves, grades of up to 4%, and four bridges across Clear Creek, including the massive Devil's Gate High Bridge. Today, lunch will be on your own in historic Georgetown as we travel to the Wine Country Inn, in Palisade, Colorado. Tonight we will experience a Wine Maker's Dinner set amid acres of vineyards! Breakfast and Dinner

Day three Monday – June 24, 2019 Palisade, Co. Wine Country Inn

Today visit one of the grand landscapes of the American West - Colorado National Monument. Be awed as you experience breath taking views of deep, sheer-sided canyons and high rock towers. Culminate your visit to this National Monument with a sunset dinner served on the canyon rim.

Breakfast and Dinner

Day Four Tuesday June 25, 2019– Durango, Co. Two nights - Strater Hotel

Depart Colorado's wine country and head to the San Juan Mountains via the Million Dollar Highway. Silverton is an old mining town in the heart of the San Juan mountains and home to the Durango & Silverton Narrow Gauge Railroad. This railroad has been voted one of the "Top Ten Most Exciting Train Journeys in the World" by the Society of American Travel Writers. Dinner tonight is at the famous Palace restaurant in Durango.

Breakfast and Dinner

Day Five Wednesday June 26, 2019 – Durango, - Strater Hotel

From local history to railroad museums, historic downtown Durango has it all. See the ancient cliff dwellings of Mesa Verde National Park, where you may even climb into the dwellings. The Historic Strater Hotel is our place for dinner tonight.

Breakfast and Dinner

Day Six Thursday June 27, 2019 – Alamosa, - Holiday Inn Express

Today's adventure includes lunch on the mountain as we chug along America's highest and longest narrow gauge railroad, the Cumbres & Toltec. The scenic journey unfolds as soon as the train, pulled by its powerful locomotive, leaves the Chama, New Mexico station. In just moments, the gradual climb into the mountains begins and another day of memories is born. Breakfast and Lunch

Day Seven Friday June 28, 2019– Colorado Springs, - Two nights Cliff House.

Today we make a visit to the "Trading Post" which has over 90,000 different gifts, souvenirs, jewelry, and locally-made art. Next we travel to the U.S. Air Force Academy and is best known for its famous and stunning Cadet Chapel (when available). Breakfast and Dinner

Day Eight Saturday June 29, 2019– Colorado Springs, - Cliff House

"Today we visit the "Garden of the Gods", a 1300 acre park where flora and fauna reflect the rich diversity of the terrain, and red sandstone formations tell a unique geological story. Next its off to our last great rail experience on board the "Royal Gorge Scenic Railroad". Our 1950's style Club Class coach with lunch has table-styled seating focused on stunning views, but with the flexibility to experience the outdoor grandeur of the Royal Gorge aboard the open-air car too. Breakfast & Lunch
