One of the most iconic ways to enjoy the lush landscape of Glacier National Park is from vintage Red Jammer buses. The journey is taken by deluxe motorcoach, and from our comfortable seats, we gaze upon the beautiful Kootenay and Purcell Mountains. The first stop of the day is in Cranbrook, BC. Here we learn about the history of Cranbrook and the surrounding area. We also enjoy lunch at the museum in the 1906

Royal Alexandra Hall. Back on the road, we continue north through Radium Hot Springs and Kootenay National Park before arriving in Banff this afternoon. Overnight Banff, AB. (B, L)

The final expedition of the day takes us into the beautifully scenic Yoho Valley. We travel along Yoho Valley Road and see famed sites, such as the Spiral Tunnels - a marvel of engineering that made it possible for trains to pass through the steep grade of Kicking Horse Pass. We also gaze upon Cathedral Mountain and the beautiful Emerald Lake. Take them all in before returning to Banff, where the evening is at leisure. Overnight Banff, AB. (B)

Day 6 - Banff Sightseeing

Spend the day enjoying the undeniable splendor of downtown Banff and Banff National Park at your own pace. You may spend some taking a dip in Banff Upper Hot Springs. Later this afternoon, head to the Banff Gondola for a ride above the treetops to the summit of Sulphur Mountain. The ride to the top takes less than 10 minutes, and upon arrival, you have time to explore the Banff Interpretive Center, to soak in views of six mountain ranges from the rooftop deck, to watch a film in the Banff Theater and to explore on foot by crossing the Sulphur Mountain Boardwalk to reach Sanson's Peak.
