for a day getaway to see the Jersey Boys, Saturday January 11th at the Palace Theatre in Columbus, OH

How did a group of blue-collar boys from the wrong side of the tracks become one of the biggest American pop music sensations of all time?

Jersey Boys is the hit musical that gives us the real, sometimes gritty and always spectacularly entertaining story of falsetto idol Franki Valli and The Four Seasons. The blue collar boys in the shiny Lurex suits strode onto the scene in 1965, wowing the public for 20 years with hits such as 'Big Girls Don't Cry', 'Oh What a Night', 'Walk like a Man', and many more. But before fame and fortune, comes a difficult, and sometimes not entirely legal, journey to stardom.

The writers wanted to create a traditional 'documentary' style story of the blue collar stars and Jersey Boys came from interviews with the surviving members of the band, cemented by Tommy Devito's addition: 'Don't listen to those guys. I'll tell you what really happened.'

The musical is told in 4 parts, each member has an act to tell his side of the story, even if it clashes with the others. We get the real story of Franki Valli and the Four Seasons, from humble beginnings to the thrill superstardom and back again, via loan sharks, jail time, tense dealings with the Mob and the strength of friendship, sound-tracked by the irresistibly recognizable hits that keep you coming back for more.
