This trip enables travelers to see the Falls from the American and Ontario sides, as well as giving them a tour of some Buffalo city highlights. Remember to have a valid passport for this excursion. If yours is outdated, you can apply for and receive a new one in 3-5 weeks.

Wednesday afternoon a local tour guide will show you the sites of the beauty and history of Buffalo, including architecture by Frank Lloyd Wright, Victorian neighborhoods, "Mansion Row", the Waterfront, Gardens, Naval and Military Park, and City Hall including a visit to the 28th floor outdoor observation deck. Head north to check into the Hotel to begin the Canadian experience. After freshening up, enjoy the sit-down dinner at The Table Rock House Restaurant overlooking the Horseshoe Falls and Terrapin Point, a truly picturesque dining experience. Spend the rest of the evening at leisure before heading to bed.

Thursday after a breakfast buffet, meet the local Guide who will provide narrative throughout the day. Start with a driving tour of the prime highlights of the area, followed by lunch at Betty's Restaurant. Continue on to White Water Walk and Whirlpool Basin, and enjoy the famous 40-ft Floral Clock with seasonal flowers, a perfect photo opportunity. Freshen up at the hotel before departing for the dinner theatre and the All-Canadian Musical, Oh Canada Eh?, which is the longest running musical performing since 1994, giving tribute to over 30 of Canada's professional recording artists. It promises to be a fun-filled night.

Friday after the breakfast buffet depart for Niagara Falls, USA where there is a visit to the New York State Park, established in 1885, which fulfills a design of natural beauty. A narrated Maid of the Mist boat tour follows, traveling to the base of the American and Horseshoe Falls in the lower Niagara River Gorge. Next, head to Goat Island to visit Terrapin Point and Horseshoe Falls. Great views are also seen at Luna Island, Bridal Veil Falls and the American Falls. Continue on to the NEW Cave of the Winds and Visitor Center. Take an elevator down to the bottom of the Niagara River Gorge to walk on platforms over rushing water up to the base of Bridal Veil Falls, a spectacular and exciting experience.
