For the first time ever at La Comedia Dinner Theatre. First performed on Broadway in 1966, the 1967 film adaptation starring Audrey Hepburn is considered one of the most grippin thrillers of all time.

Murder, secret identities, and a switchblade named Geraldine set the stage for this white-knuckle thriller that will have you sleeping with the lights on.

Susan, a blind woman, lives with her husband Sam in a basement apartment in Greenwich Village. While away on business, Sam unknowingly smuggles a peculiar doll into the States. But when the doll goes missing, a woman is murdered and a mystery begins to unravel that leaves Susan tangled up with a ruthless con man.

A battle of wits ensues as light becomes dark and the tables are turned in a deadly game of cat and mouse that will have you on the edge of your seat!
