Is it Mackinaw or is it Mackinac ?

French or British, either one it is pronounced the same Mack-i-naw

On Tuesday, September 14, 2021, JB Tours will be departing by air conditioned motorcoach with restroom to the Upper Peninsula of Michigan for 3 days touring with a Professional Guide. Following a tour of Mackinaw City, you will be crossing the Mackinac Bridge to the Upper Peninsula where they will check you in to the hotel for dinner and overnight. The rest of the evening you can relax or stop at the Casino.

After breakfast, Wednesday, they will take the scenic drive to Big Springs of Michigan and on to your lunch before boarding for the Pictured Rock Boat Cruise. Next they will check you in to the White Pine Lodge in Christmas, MI., your dinner tonight will be at a near by restaurant.

After breakfast at the Lodge on Thursday, they will depart for the Upper Tahquamenon Falls. Lunch is included at the Falls Restaurant. Next they will travel to the Great Lakes Shipwreck Museum at Whitefish Point where you will hear about the wreck of the Edmund Fitzgerald and see the Lighthouse Keeper's Quarters, Gift Shop and grounds. Next you will travel back to your hotel and dinner and say good-bye to the Guide.

After breakfast, Friday, you will depart the hotel with a stop at the Cross in the Woods National Shrine, 55 feet tall and 22 feet wide at Indian River, Michigan. Next stop will be for a rest break and lunch before continuing the trip home arriving approximately 6:30 pm.
