Join us for a day out in the beautiful Holmes County where you will take in the Amish life.

We will start our day by touring a local candy store and making our own Buckeyes to take home.

After indulging our sweet tooth we will make a stop at Millers Bakery. This is Amish owned and the pastries will make you remember how bakeries were, when you were a kid.

From there we will head down the hill to Hershbergers Farm Market and Bakery. They have baked goods and also a leather and gift shop. You might even see goats on the roof and you will for sure see a very large horse. Here is a great place to get your lunch (on your own). They have an outdoor trailer with sandwiches made from local farms. For dessert you may want to indulge in a homemade ice cream sundae or some kettle corn.

After lunch we will go to Berlin for a couple hours of free time to explore this quaint little town. You will see Amish horse and buggies going about their day's business along with many little specialty shops to explore. If you are looking for a snack may I suggest The Pretzel Nook? They have hot buttery fresh from the oven pretzels and they are the best! (oh, and don't forget the dipping sauce)

From Berlin we will make our way to Walnut Creek Cheese Market. This is where you will want to buy your cheeses, spices, groceries and other goodies.

We will finish our day at Erb's Family home with a delicious hot homemade dinner complete with a piece of pie for dessert.

After dinner when we can eat no more, spend no more and need a nap we will head for home.

Have a great and relaxing day!
